Check out how our talented illustrators and extraordinary books shine on the Bologna stage!

6 Taiwanese illustrators are selected in 2022 Bologna Illustrators Exhibition.

66 Taiwanese illustrators have been selected in Bologna Illustrators Exhibition since 1989.

6 Taiwanese titles have been honored with the Bologna Ragazzi Award, including:

The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a book cover or a wall, with various shades of green and brown. There are several green, leafy plants and trees scattered across the scene. In the lower-left corner, there is a small, stylized tree with a white trunk and a green canopy, situated on a small, reddish-brown hill. The overall mood is mysterious and artistic.

Beyond Books, Stories ahead.

Via books, we tell stories to readers from all over the world.

The Taiwan Pavilion at the 2022 Bologna Children's Book Fair is organized by Taiwan Creative Content Agency and co-organized by Taipei Book Fair Foundation.

With the yearly theme “Beyond Books, Stories Ahead”, we invite you to check out our featured titles and immerse yourself in the stories. In addition to books, the Taiwan Pavilion also presents selected illustrators and exhibitors from Taiwan.

Hsiao-Chi Chang 張筱琦

Hsiao-Chi Chang is an illustrator who is currently based in Taipei, Taiwan. Her illustration style is whimsical and playful. She is often inspired by the humorous situations she encounters in daily life. What drives her to create is the desire to play and express emotions. A majority of her artworks are illustrated for children. She usually works with acrylic, watercolor, gouache, and Adobe Photoshop, but she is open to experimenting with all types of media.

Oh, one more thing about Hsiao-Chi, she loves black tea latte.

Where's Where? 哪邊是哪邊

We don't know what's over there. Maybe the "where" we thought is already somewhere? There's nowhere we have to go because it can be anywhere. I believe where we arrive at last probably is a place with the most beautiful scenery!

Animo Chen 阿尼默

"One day, I mistook a dab of paint for a piece of chocolate and devoured it up. Much to my surprise, I found it tasted heavenly. Naturally, I gobbled more down every day, coating my stomach in layer upon layer of pigment until I threw up a mess resembling a cast of my own innards. The intestines, the stomach, the heart – they were ever so beautiful. I'd truly cultivated myself from the inside out."

Animo has a degree in Visual Communication Design from Da-Yeh University in Taiwan and an MA from the Fine Arts Department, Academy of Arts, Architecture and Design in Prague, Czech Republic. His work is as diverse as it is prolific. With experience as a still photographer, TV and film art director, animation director, and a professional illustrator, Animo excels at cerebral imagery and piercing prose, and his work is often featured in periodicals and on book covers. He was also featured in the Illustrators Exhibition at the 2019 Bologna Children's Book Fair.

His work The Short Elegy is the winner of the 2020 BolognaRagazzi Award for Comics - Young Adult, and Love Letter won the BolognaRagazzi Award Special Mention in the 2021 Special Category – Poetry.

The Short Elegy 小輓：阿尼默漫畫集

An elegy is a song or poem lamenting the deceased. In each loss there is a gain, just as in every gain there is a loss. This adage is underscored in each of The Short Elegy's three short stories—Dry River, House Mosquito, and The Ribbon—each of which offers fleeting glimpses of death.

Love Letter 情批

"Love Letter" is an illustrated poem with the Taiwanese-language. The first three landscapes of the book actually connect to form a panorama with forests, log ponds, railroad tracks for transporting logs, paper mills, and old printing presses. This Love Letter is a confession of love to the author's mother language, to trees, to books, to the entire process of book-making.

Pei-Hsin Cho 卓霽欣

Pei-Hsin is a Taiwanese visual storyteller with a particular focus on illustration and animation, currently based in London.

Her work is narrative-based and revolves around sensationalism and sentimentalism, at themes of self-introspection, mentality, and psychology. She combines traditional and digital mediums to depict a variety of inward feelings that attempt to transcribe subtle emotions of humanity into tangible and visually tactile images. Personal sentiments are always present in Pei-Hsin's work, wrapped with rational narration to catalyse inaccessible subjective experiences and memory fragments.

Pei-Hsin has worked with various clients from all over the world including: Adobe, The New Yorker, The New York Times, Royal Society of Literature, Where The Leaves Fall Magazine, Patient Access, Oh Magazine, London Print Studio, Lenovo Legion, Patient Ltd UK, Spicy Fish Cultural Production Limited, P&T Berlin, Taiwan Film Institute, Ministry of Culture (BAMID, Taiwan)

從前、從前，有一條鐵路，穿過海、經過稻田。
啾啾啾……一輛火車來到小島。

Once Upon a Time, There Was a Train Reaching to the Island English Sample

Once upon a time, there was a railroad that cut through the ocean and passed by rice fields.
Chugga chugga choo choo... A train arrived at a small island.

它比房子還高，
噴出的黑煙遮住了整座山脈，
大家好奇又害怕地張望。

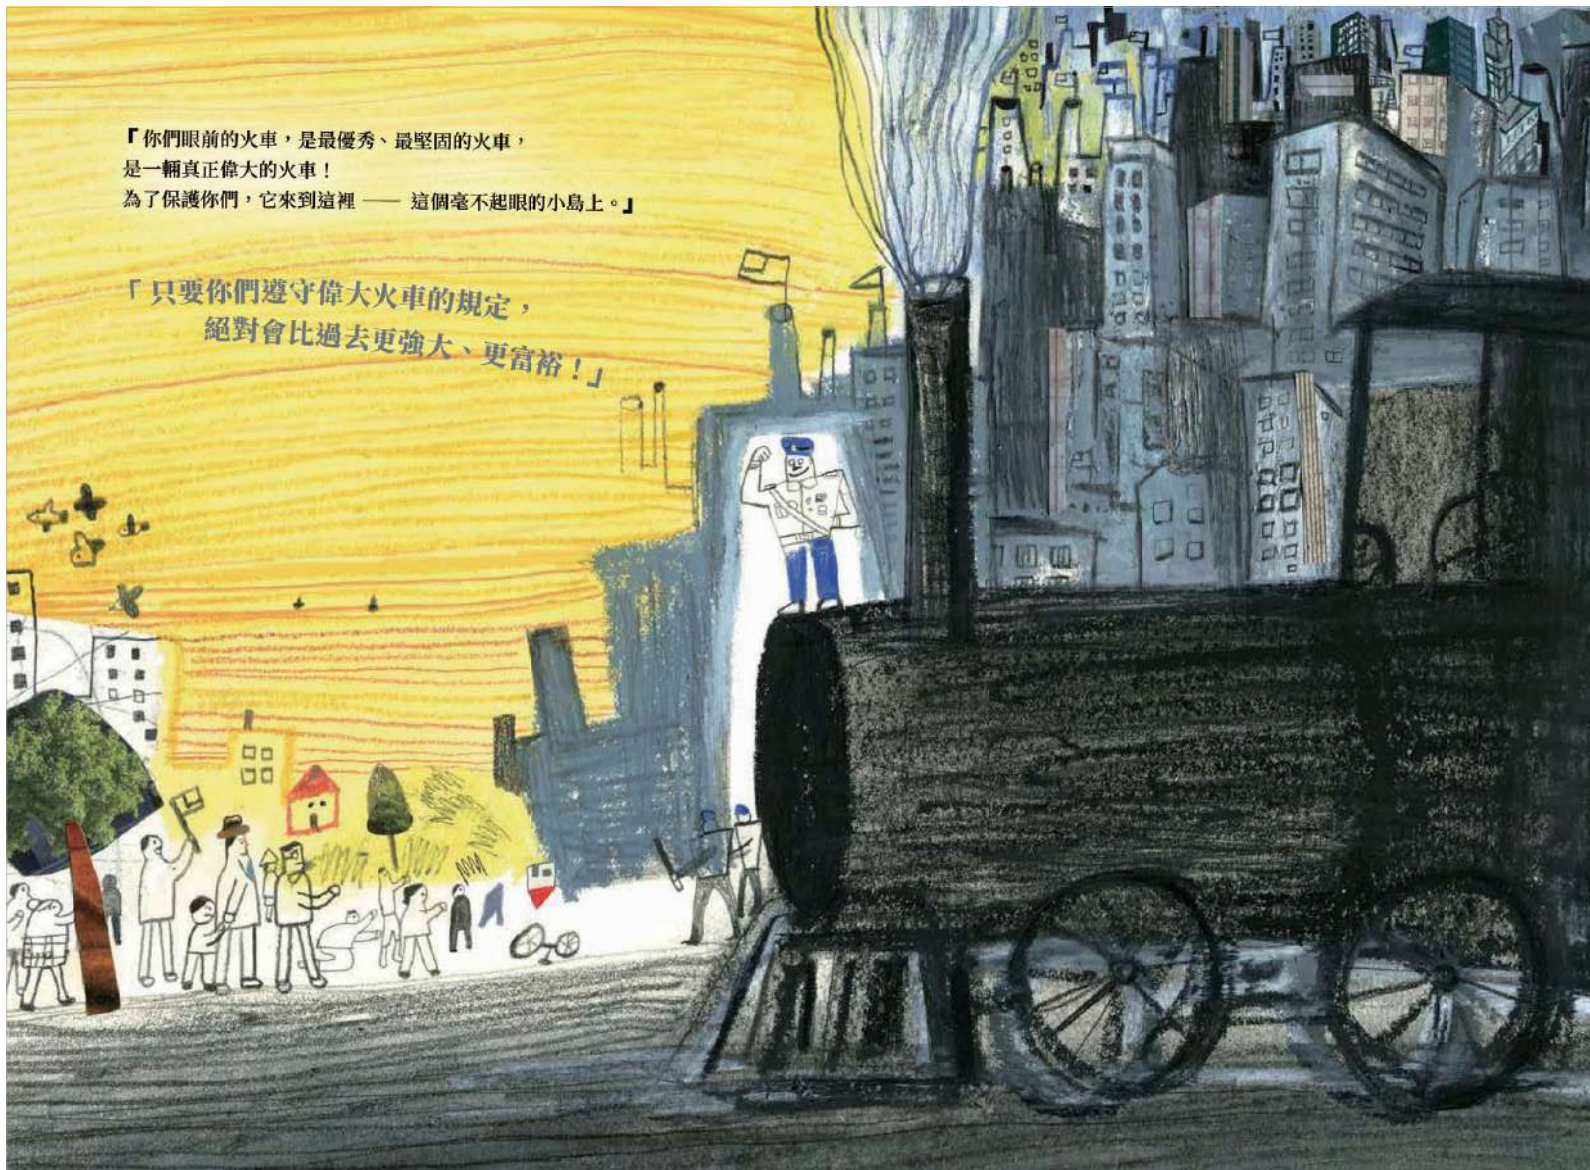

突然，車頭上傳來一個聲音：

「聽好了——
這是一輛偉大的火車！」

It was taller than a house. The black smoke that poured out of its engine covered the whole mountain range. Everyone curiously and nervously looked around.

Suddenly, a voice came from the front of the train:

“Listen up! This is a mighty train.”

“The train before you is the toughest and most exceptional train. It's a truly mighty train! It came here—to this insignificant island—to protect you.”

“As long as you all follow the mighty train's rules, you will definitely be more powerful and abundant than in the past!”

Hurry! Hurry!

快點！快點！

“Hurry! Hurry!” is a common phrase of a lot of parents. We often do a lot of things hurriedly but we do not win extra time by doing so. This book helps us to rethink why we do things in a hurry, and what we miss when rushing all the time. And through rethinking, maybe we can learn to slow down to breathe in the fragrance of flowers by the road.

The Diary of Mom English Sample

Birth

From today onward, a new stage of life is ushered in—a marvelous journey. After a tortuous day and night in the hospital, I finally met the tiny dancer in my belly. My first impression of you was your energetic cry and the warmth of you resting on my chest, feeling your tiny heartbeat. It was the feeling of indescribable gratitude that made my eyes well up with tears.

My child, thank you for your safe arrival. You're my baby. I will always do my best to love and protect you.

With the slow passage of time,

our appearances have changed, and so has the appearance of our house.

My child is about to become a mother.

Mealtime

Before lunch time, my son sits on a mat playing with a toy car. I'm in the kitchen preparing his lunch. Today, there are many finger foods such as chicken drumsticks and bite-sized onigiri. I've also prepared the udon noodles I like. My son sits in the highchair, holding his small spoon. I sit across from him, and we enjoy a meal together. I really like watching his delighted face as he eats. Although it's only the beginning, I will do my best to ignore the mess left behind on the table and the floor, while telling myself that it's a process and I shouldn't disturb his food exploration. I just need to focus on the flowers in a vase on the table, temporarily space out, and then clean up the mess after lunch.

My child, eating is a wonderful thing. Enjoying a meal with your family is a precious experience. I'm looking forward to when you grow up a bit, and then we can chat during our meal.

Yes Creative Ltd. /Papa Publishing House

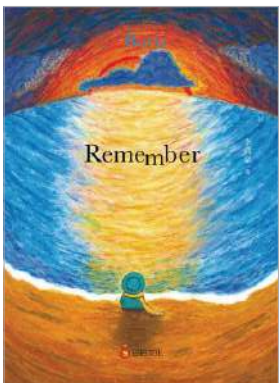

也是文創／巴巴文化

Yes Creative Agency (Papa Publishing House) publishes illustrated books, fairy tales and fictions for kids. Each of them is originally created by Taiwanese writers and illustrators. By producing more Taiwanese based stories with local elements as well as common emotions shared worldwide, we hope to give children the chances to read more about their own culture and life, and evoke their interest of reading.

Books from Taiwan

is an initiative funded by TAICCA (Taiwan Creative Content Agency) to introduce a select list of Taiwanese titles, ranging from fiction, non-fiction, children's books and comics, to foreign publishers and readers alike.

Books from Taiwan Website

On the Books from Taiwan website you will find information about authors and books, along with who to contact in order to license translation rights. All titles featured are eligible for the Translation Grants Program, sponsored by the Ministry of Culture of Taiwan.

Translation Grants Program

Grant for the Publication of Taiwanese Works in Translation (GPT) is set up by The Ministry of Culture to encourage the publication of Taiwanese works in translation overseas, to raise the international visibility of Taiwanese cultural content, and to help Taiwan's publishing industry expand into non-Chinese international markets.

The so-called Taiwanese works must meet the following requirements :

- (1) Use traditional characters,
- (2) written by a natural person holding an Taiwan(R.O.C.) identity card, and
- (3) has been assigned an ISBN in Taiwan. All genres will be considered. Priority is given to projects with books that have won the Golden Tripod Award, the Golden Comic Award, or the Taiwan Literature Award.

The maximum grant available for each project is NT$600,000, and all legally registered or incorporated foreign publishing house (legal entity) are welcome to take this opportunity. The GPT usually is open for application every twice a year (in spring and autumn). For detailed information, please visit:
